PRESIDENT'S NOTE

Hello, I'm Rishabh Khatri, the co-founder of Visionary India and the President of Visionary India Model United Nations (VIMUN).

At Visionary India, our mission is to empower youth by offering platforms for growth and development. The VIMUN conference is just the beginning of our journey, and with the support of my incredible team and co-founders, we're determined to make VIMUN one of the most prestigious conferences in Uttarakhand and, eventually, in India.

From being an unknown student to becoming one of the best speakers in my school and city, my journey is a testament to perseverance. To everyone out there striving for success: remember, every winner is simply someone who gave one more try. We are destined to be winners.

And as Julius Caesar famously said, "Veni, vidi, vici" – I came, I saw, I conquered.

Thank you, and I look forward to seeing you at VIMUN!

-Co-founder, RISHAB KHATRI
